

BEHIND THE SCENES AT A MUSEUM... AND BEYOND

Date: Friday 12th November 2010
 Time: 10.00am - 4.00pm
 Location: National Railway Museum, Leeman Road, York
 York St John University

Course description

An exciting opportunity to visit 2 libraries that will offer an insight into 2 different library sectors. The morning will be spent at the National Railway Museum (<http://www.nrm.org.uk/>) where we will have a tour of the library facilities of this national museum and its unique collection. The afternoon will be spent at York St John University where we will get a beneficial insight into how we can help our sixth formers prepare for university life.

The cost includes lunch at the Railway Museum, all refreshments and return transfers to York St John University.

The day will be of interest to those seeking ACLIP/Chartership and Librarians, Teachers and Learning Centre Managers who work with sixth formers.
